A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM

OBERON...

Now, until the break of day,
Through this house each fairy stray.

To the best bride-bed will we,
Which by us shall blessed be.

And the issue, there create,
Ever shall be fortunate.

So shall all the couples three
Ever true in loving be.

And the blots of Nature's hand
Shall not in their issue stand.

Never mole, hare-lip, nor scar,
Nor mark prodigious, such as are
Despised in nativity,
Shall upon their children be.

With this field-dew consecrate,
Every fairy take his gait,
And each several chamber bless,
Through this palace, with sweet
peace,
And the owner of it blest,
Ever shall in safety rest.

Trip away: make no stay:
Meet me all by break of day.

PUCK....

If we shadows have offended,
Think but this, and all is mended,
That you have but slumbered here,
While these visions did appear.

And this weak and idle theme,
No more yielding but a dream,
Gentles, do not reprehend.

If you pardon, we will mend.

And, as I am an honest Puck,
If we have unearned luck,
Now to 'scape the serpent's tongue,
We will make amends ere long;
Else the Puck a liar call.
So good-night unto you all.

Give me your hands, if we be friends,
And Robin shall restore amends.

THANK YOU
